Vocation of Marriage

Marriage is a vocation. Marriage is a sacrament. Your marriage is a sacrament - a profound, unseen spiritual reality made tangible through outer signs in living the daily life of your vocation.

All marriages - from 5 days to 50+ years - need regular attention, nurturing and, perhaps, an occasional tune-up.

Below is the link for a weeklong, at-home, retreat, Love Beyond Words, in which you will examine the words that make up the sacrament of marriage and the real-life experience of living them out.

April 7, the Second Sunday of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday!

Celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday with
Meditation and Benediction followed by Confession and a
Potluck all starting at 2:00 pm at St. Augustine

Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when “all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened.” (Diary 699)

Jesus promised that “The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.” (Diary 699)

He went on to say “I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy (now called Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Catholic Church).” (Diary 1109)

(Important note: According to the rules of plenary indulgence, Confession and Holy Communion may take place within 20 days before or after the indulgenced act.)

We want to encourage everyone to take advantage of this incredible promise and the additional Plenary Indulgence on this great Feast of Mercy “Divine Mercy Sunday”. We want you to benefit fully from these promises, and we also want you to notify all of your family and friends about them too and urge them to return to the practice of their faith!

The Image of The Divine Mercy, which Our Lord requested to be solemnly blessed and venerated on this day said to St. Faustina “I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You.” (Diary 327) “The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the cross.”

Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him.” (Diary 299) Pope John Paul II said that the image portrays the Risen Jesus Christ bringing Mercy to the whole world. Our Lord said, “I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish.” (Diary 341, 48)

The Divine Mercy Novena starts on Good Friday.

Pray with us!

“You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.”
