Tips & Etiquette

As Catholics, we believe that the Eucharist is the true “Bread of Life.”

It is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ.

When we receive the Eucharist, we are receiving Jesus.

Out of reverence for Christ, only those in union with this teaching and in a state of grace should receive the Eucharist.

As Catholics, we should abstain from taking the Eucharist if we are in mortal sin.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, grant our priests and religious the courage to stand firm in their faith, even in the face of persecution and opposition. Strengthen their resolve to proclaim Your truth with boldness and love. May they not be swayed by the pressures of the world but be unwavering witnesses to the Gospel. Fill them with the courage to speak Your Word with conviction, no matter the cost.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen

The Thoughts of Many Hearts

When Simeon cradles the infant Messiah in his arms, he speaks of salvation and glory and revelation. He speaks of his own death. He speaks of the fulfillment of God's promise to all people.

But most memorable, in my opinion, are his words about the hearts of men. This Child, he says, will be the way "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Perhaps you're like me. Perhaps you don't enjoy scrutinizing yourself, your actions, your intentions. You don't like reflecting on why you feel or react the way you do, and you really don't enjoy measuring those feelings and reactions against what you know they could be.

It's exhausting to sit with God, your heart in your hands, both of us looking at it, talking about it. So far too often, I opt out.

The oldest trick of the devil, you see, is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It's not hard for him to do. There are so many other things I could be doing, after all. Answering emails. Catching up on laundry. Scrolling Facebook. Worrying about inflation and the election. Stressing about my kid's dance recital and next week's busy schedule.

But where is God truly at work? Where is the place God will point to, when my life on Earth has come to its close?

It is the very depths of my heart. The place where I am my most authentic self, for better or worse. The place where all my pretensions crumble away, and I am alone with the truth of who I am and what I choose to do.

Am I brave enough to look into the depths of my own heart?
