St. Mary Parish (Coupeville) Pastoral Plan for 2022

INTRODUCTION

Dear Parishioners,

Our Archbishop Paul D. Etienne has invited all parishes in the archdiocese to have a Pastoral Plan for 2022 that would deepen our relationship with Jesus. We are happy and excited to share St. Mary's Pastoral Plan for 2022.

It is a call to each of us to make a personal commitment to God to know Jesus and embrace his mission. Please look over the Pastoral Plan. Review each of the three sections to find ways God might be calling you. You may already be doing many of these things and you may find new ways as well.

On Sunday, January 30, 2022, your Pastoral Council has been invited by Fr. Paul to present the plan to you during the homily. There will be time for questions.

For additional resources to guide individuals on the journey of encountering the Lord more deeply and sharing his love and joy with others please go to this link:

<https://archseattle.org/about-the-archdiocese-of-seattle/archbishop-etienne/pastoralplanning/pastoral-plan/pastoral-plan-resources/>

With Our Prayers,

Shari, Paula, Maria, Phil, Chris, Bill, Aida, Barbara

St. Mary (Coupeville) Pastoral Plan – 2022

Response to Archbishop Paul D. Etienne's invitation for each of us to go deeper in our relationship with Jesus.

St. Mary Parish Mission Statement:

The Mission of St. Mary Church, a welcoming community, is to proclaim Christ through Worship, Word, and Service. We are committed through our stewardship of Time, Talent, and Treasure to Education, Spiritual Growth, and Listening to the Holy Spirit.

Let's begin by "Taking Action"

Encounter Jesus Christ and One Another

- Attend Mass every weekend, unless prevented by sickness or travel.
- Engage in sacramental confession at least twice a year.
- Pray daily, with a goal of at least 5 to 10 minutes daily.
- Grow in faith through study, reading at least one book or attending one class each year.
- Search for ways to equip ourselves and others to encounter Jesus Christ.

Accompany each other, as one human family, on the journey of discipleship

- Discuss my relationship with the Lord in a small faith-sharing group keeping in mind that a family is itself a small group.
- Look after the material, emotional, and/or spiritual needs of at least one fellow parishioner each year, either formally through a pastoral care ministry, or informally.
- Look after the needs of my parish, by giving back at least 1 hour of time or 1 hour of money (per my hourly income rate) each week.

Live the unconditional love and joy of the Gospel

- Talk to at least one new person about Jesus each year.
- Unite myself in solidarity to at least one economically or marginalized person each year, either by experiencing their reality or listening to their experiences.
- Be a public witness to the self-sacrificial example of Jesus at least once each year by giving something of myself to the marginalized, either formally through an outreach ministry or informally by giving up my time, money, or pride.

Dear Lord, this is my personal commitment for 2022. I promise to try to attain holiness as listed above.
