Prayer for Vocations

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our parish priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for their parishioners. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Eternal Priest. Amen.

Tips & Etiquette

Do you review the readings before Mass? Reading them ahead of time and discussing them with family or friends will help you understand them better when you hear them again!

Find them at:
<https://bible.usccb.org/daily-bible-reading>

Homebound Eucharist Ministry

Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound bring Communion to parishioners who are unable to attend Mass. This essential ministry allows them to be able to receive Our Lord in the Eucharist and helps them stay connected to our parish. Training is mandatory as is a reverence for the Eucharist and a desire to perform this Corporal Work of Mercy. If you feel called to this ministry or know someone who would like receive Eucharist, please contact Mary E Waters at adultff@staugustineoh.org

Parish Job Opening

St Augustine Catholic Church is seeking to hire an accompanist (piano and/or organ) to provide music for parish liturgies and other designated celebrations. The position would collaborate with the Pastor or other assigned consultive body. The candidate will need to audition for the Pastor. The position is a year round position up to ten hours per week. Successful candidates should be registered to a Catholic parish and be an active participant in Catholic worship and parish life. The complete job description and application packet are available on our website staugustineoh.org or by sending a request to amin@staugustineoh.org

October is Respect Life Month

Every October, the Church in the U.S. celebrates Respect Life Month. We reflect on the gift of every human life and how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death.

Question:

There seems to be a lot of division in some Catholic churches over moral issues, especially abortion and end-of-life care. If all Catholics follow the Gospel of Jesus, why is there such a difference of opinion?

Answer:

There is always a struggle between culture and religion, and part of that struggle is politics. To be politically correct means that you must embrace the secular virtue of the moment so that you are "enlightened," "sensitive," "aware," and, most importantly, "open-minded." Unfortunately, common sense can be sacrificed in the race to be "PC."

Some factions within Christian denominations have tried to redefine tradition, history, and biblical teaching to bend it around the politically correct religious thinking of the day. On the life issues that you mention, there are those who began with their own conclusions and have tried to bend theology around their conclusions. This is possible in part because of a lack of a central teaching authority and partly because society has become apathetic to these issues. It will result in a lot of division, factions, and schisms. The Gospel calls all believers to embrace the truth, to turn from sin, and to seek holiness and justice. No matter how hard some may try, a square peg will not fit a round hole. The camel cannot fit through the eye of the needle.
