Tips & Etiquette

Am I permitted to receive Communion if I am late to Mass?

The Catholic Mass consists of two main parts: the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

We always have to think of receiving Communion as being within a celebration of the Mass and we have to be active participants in that celebration – we can't simply show up "in time" for Communion.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord, You are the source of all purity and holiness. We pray for the purity of heart and mind of our priests and religious. Protect them from the snares of impurity and the corrupting influences of the world. May they remain steadfast in their commitment to celibacy and chastity, offering their bodies as living sacrifices to You. Let their purity be a radiant testimony to Your grace and sanctity. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen

Examination of Conscience... Explained

In Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, the apostle writes that it is imperative for a Christian to reflect on his conscience before he partakes of Holy Eucharist: "Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup" (1 Corinthians 11:28). The practice of examining one's conscience before seeking the Sacrament of Reconciliation thus dates to the very beginning of the Christian faith and was encouraged as a regular practice by many saints and founders of religious orders as a means of growing in virtue.

An examination of conscience, when it relates to the sacrament, simply means reflecting on one's actions (and particularly the intentions behind those actions) since the penitent's last absolution, making note of lapses in judgment that should be confessed. A good basis for this reflection can be the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes and the seven deadly sins.
