Prayer for Vocations

O Lord, You command us to love You with all our heart, soul, and mind, and to love our neighbor as ourselves.
Plant in our hearts a deep desire for vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and holy marriage.
Give us courage to answer Your call with a love that is whole and undivided.
Guide us with faithful and willing hearts.
Fill us with zeal to serve Your people, purity to reflect Your love, and humility to seek only Your will.
May we answer Your call with generous hearts, lead others closer to You, and find lasting joy in serving Your Church.
Amen.

Tips & Etiquette

A Mass intention is a request that a particular Mass be offered for a person, a need, or a thanksgiving. The priest offers the Eucharist for that intention, and the whole parish joins by their presence and prayer.
The Prayers of the Faithful follow the Creed. We pray for the Church, the world, the sick, the dead, and local needs. These intercessions are the Church's public voice of charity.
Next month Pope Leo XIV asks us to pray for the proper use of wealth, that it may serve the common good and those who have less.
When we offer a Mass intention or join the Prayers of the Faithful, we can hold this intention in our hearts and ask that our own resources be used with generosity and trust in God. .

What's Love got to do with it?

When I was in seventh grade, like most boys of that age, I was constantly hungry. I could eat at any hour of the day. Then I fell head over heels for a classmate named Kristin. One evening, while lying on my bed and pondering her perfections, my mom called me to dinner. For the first time in my adolescent life, I remember thinking: "I'm not hungry." My heart longed for Kristin more than my stomach for food. Now, I wouldn't confuse adolescent infatuation with mature love. But it was an experience of how love can reorder everything in our lives.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart" (Matthew 22:37). He is not issuing a burden or a moral goal for high achievers. He is naming the deepest orientation of the human heart. We were made for love so great that it gathers every other love into itself. Jesus does not ask us to love less the persons or things that attract us. Rather, he wants our love for God to be so total and intense that we love everything and everyone else because we love him so much.

Do we believe that such a love is possible for us? Because of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it is! It is readily available to us. Let's repent of our half-hearted love for God and ask Him to fill our hearts to the brim with divine love.

Cross Catholic OUTREACH

Delivering Food, Shelter and Hope to the Poorest of the Poor

Our Mission

We mobilize the global Catholic Church to transform the poor and their communities materially and spiritually for the glory of Jesus Christ.

How We Serve

Rather than create new institutions to distribute aid, we support existing ministries and churches already serving in developing countries. In addition to this being the most cost-effective way of helping our brothers and sisters in need, empowering these existing ministries also allows us to support the Church's spiritual mission and leadership role in poor communities.

Good Stewardship

We consider every gift we receive as a precious resource from God. We direct every donation to its intended project, provide honest and accurate reports to our donors, and keep overhead costs to an industry low. We handle funds with utmost integrity and hold our ministry partners in the field to the same high standards by asking them to document costs and the impact of their outreach.
